COLUMBUS.

The Life Story of a True Christian and Peerless Catholic Navigator.

Discovery Produced World's Greatest Geographical Change.

New Land Was Dedicated to the Saviour of Mankind.

CAME OF LOWLY PARENTAGE.

The Southern Guardian, of Little Rock, has an excellent article on Columbus from the pen of Dr. Vincent Fallis, a former resident of this city and member of Mackin Council and the Knights of Columbus, from which we extract the following:

History has recorded many events that have made, here and there, changes of vast importance, but of those that affected the whole of the world two stand out most clearly. First, the coming of God made man, which coming revolutionized ideas and ideals. The second, one that produced the greatest geographical change that the world has ever known, was that which took place in October, 419 years ago—the landing on the shores of a new world, that greatest of nautical heroes, Christopher Columbus. By those who seek to disparage Columbus, the greatest of men, is laid upon the probabilities that others came to America before him. Since we believe that all mankind found origin in Adam and Eve, and since Columbus, upon his arrival, found human beings, it is very evident that some one discovered America before Columbus. Then we have the story of the Mound Builders, but in later years the consensus of opinion is that they were simply a tribe of cultured Indians. Again we have the Norsemen, with hazy records, yet since they left no proof, such as utensils, cattle or other domestic animals, and since the first of these records were written 200 years after the supposed discovery, we have reason to believe, with such historians as Bryant, Weise and Beams, that "there is not a single item in the evidence advanced to prove the presence of Norsemen on the soil of North America."

His was not a journey of the North Pole type, productive of no practical benefit to mankind, but a journey undertaken to put an end to the difficult and perilous voyage to India, and though the new route was longer, yet he hoped that more profitable seas would more than compensate for the length of the journey and thereby eliminate the horrors and dangers of the African coast. And how nearly correct were his calculations, considering the knowledge and instruments of his day, for the proof will show that he was on a straight line to India. But an Almighty Providence saw fit to place an obstacle in his path, and that obstacle—America—has proven to be of far more benefit to humanity than could have been the accomplishment of a journey to India.

Columbus, like the majority of the world's great men, came of lowly parentage, his father being a poor candlemaker, but young Christopher was not to be bound to the making of small lights, and hence he chose the sea for the display of his energy and made numerous voyages to all parts of the known world, nor were his leisure hours spent in idleness or useless recreation, for he used them for study in those branches that would better fit him to take a commanding position in his profession. Astronomy, mathematics and geography he strove continually to master, and it was in the pursuit of these studies that he was convinced of the earth's shape and that a voyage to India by the western route was a possibility. But he was poor; he must needs look to others for support. He argued and gave his proofs to many without avail. He was scorned and ridiculed as one mentally unbalanced; his theories as the visionary vapors of an abnormal intellect. But after years of fruitless endeavor he persuaded the good Queen Isabella of Spain to assist him, though the court of Spain was bankrupt following the wars with the Moors, yet history tells us that so impressed was she with the learning and earnestness of Columbus that she pawned her jewels in order to fit up an expedition. His expedition set sail from Palos on Friday, August 3, after Columbus and all his crew had received the sacraments. During the voyage which followed Columbus called into action all the attributes of a truly great commander, for he had to deal with mutiny, nostalgia and despair, but he was capable of handling each situation as it arose until finally, on the night of October 1, 1492, Columbus saw in the distance a tiny light moving to and fro—that light which has steadily grown and grown until now its radiance encircles the whole globe, penetrating to innermost recesses, dispelling the gloom of tyrannical darkness, beckoning to every down-trodden people and making light the path to a better and happier existence in this, our own free America, thus again duplicating that great light of Scripture which led a people out of bondage into a land of milk and honey. But Columbus, fearful, unwilling to trust his sight or to arouse false hopes, kept his peace, and early the next morning, October 12, a sailor on the lookout saw land and the pent-up hopes of realization gave vent in that glad shout of "Land! Land!" a shout destined to be echoed and re-echoed to the present time, when thousands yearly sight the Statue of Liberty and cry out "Land! Land of our dreams! Land of promise!" That is what this land has been since that memorable October of 1492.

What must have been the emotions in the breasts of those despairing men, and how much more intense must have been those of their commander—joy and satisfaction at the successful culmination of his efforts, gratitude to God, who in so magnificent and singular a manner answered his prayers, sacrifices, and we are told upon landing all threw themselves upon their knees, kissing the ground and thanking a beneficent Creator, while Columbus, holding aloft the manubrium of his sword, fashioned as a cross, christened the new found land San Salvador, thus dedicating it to the Saviour of the world.

After further explorations he returned to Spain for his reward. He was received with open arms and his prowess extolled on every side. But Columbus was not satisfied. Again and again he visited the scenes of his triumph, while his enemies were at work in the court of Spain, and finally, as a result of their intrigues, Columbus was branded a criminal and brought back to Spain in chains, where soon after the physical sufferings consequent upon exposure and the mental agony produced by the display of ingratitude made his soul long to break from its confinement, which it finally did on Ascension day, in the year 1506, a fitting day for the death of the second liberator.

HOLY NAME.

Laying of Corner Stone of Another Handsome Church.

Tomorrow afternoon will mark the greatest event yet recorded in the Catholic church in South Louisville—the laying of the corner stone of the new and handsome Holy Name church being erected by the Rev. John O'Connor at Third and O streets. Under the administration of Father O'Connor the congregation has made phenomenal progress, and the new edifice will long stand a monument to his zeal and energy. When finished it will be one of the finest churches in the diocese.

Bishop O'Donoghue will preside at the beautiful but impressive ceremonies and will be assisted by large numbers of the clergy, many of whom will be from outside the city. The sermon for the occasion will be delivered by the Rev. G. W. Schumann, D. D., pastor of St. John's church. Additional interest will be lent the cornerstone laying by the parade of the Uniform Rank, C. K. of A., the Knights of St. John and the parish societies, under the marshaling of Major Gen. Michael Reichert and staff. The parade will form at Third and Avery, and headed by a platoon of police and the School of Reform and Knights of St. John bands will march through the principal streets of South Louisville to Third and O, where the blessing will take place at 3:30 o'clock.

RALLY NIGHT.

Knights of St. John Are to Entertain Wednesday Night.

St. Michael's Commandery of the Knights of St. John, one of the strongest in this section of the country, has arranged for a rally night of its members and their friends next Wednesday night in St. Peter's Hall, Seventeenth and Southgate streets. The interesting feature will be the conferring of honorary membership on Col. John H. Whalen, an honor bestowed on only three others in the history of this commandery. Col. Joe Breen, President Wittenauer and others have arranged an interesting programme, at the conclusion of which there will be a luncheon and refreshments.

Alderman Fred Leizer will preside and it is expected short addresses will be made by Rev. Father Jerome Preissner, Hon. Edward J. McDermott, William H. Higgins, Col. Joe Breen and Joseph Conkling. St. Michael's Commandery has an excellent record, and it is intended at this rally to inaugurate a movement that will bring into its ranks many new members. Several hundred invitations have been issued, and the committee predicts one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings in the history of Commandery 103.

"WATCHED."

Grant Kilkelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kilkelly, 1653 Prentiss street, was tendered a most delightful birthday party last Saturday evening in celebration of his nineteenth anniversary. The home was made beautiful with decorations and colored lights, and at the appointed time his godmother and godfather and friends arrived, each eager to greet him with a remembrance for his birthday. After an hour of music and dancing he was presented with a handsome gold watch by William M. Higgins on behalf of the happy parents. At the close the many guests were invited to the dining room, where a delightful repast was served.

ARE ROUTED.

Local Ticket Named by Democrats Assures a Glorious Victory.

Convention Most Harmonious Held Here For Many Years.

Great Outpourings Point Way the People Are Going to Vote.

O'REAR NOW ON THE RUN

If there ever was any doubt as to the result of the coming election in this district it was dispelled by the convention held Saturday and the tremendous outpouring that greeted Congressman Underwood Monday night. The convention to nominate a local ticket was called to order in Lederkrans Hall by Chairman Frank McGrath and proved the most enthusiastic and harmonious of recent years. Sheriff Emier was elected to preside and John Shea was chosen Secretary. As was predicted in these columns, the present excellent city administration was given a hearty endorsement, nearly all the men now serving in the Legislature and the General Council being nominated for re-election. This means a big vote and a majority of at least 5,000 for the Democratic ticket.

Following is a complete list of the nominees:

Judge Jefferson Circuit Court, Chancery branch, First division—James Quares.

PARK COMMISSIONERS.

Fred Levy, Dr. Walker B. Gossett and Ben J. Brumleve.

Judge Quarles was presented to the convention and made a speech that evidenced his fitness for the Circuit Court bench and the wisdom of the convention.

Tuesday night Congressman Underwood was here and addressed a monster gathering at Hopkins Theater. This meeting showed the way the voters will cast their votes and the futurity of the Republicans making any further nominations.

Chairman R. H. Vansant, of the Democratic Campaign Committee, has issued a statement predicting Democratic success. This is not the claim of a rainbow-chaser who is fooling both himself and his party, but is the frank opinion of a practical man, who is in touch with every county in the State and who can speak authoritatively of the work that is being done. The organization is the best that has been made in Kentucky in many years. It not only comprises old and new leaders, but goes into every precinct and enlists the support of the rank and file, which after all determines whether victory or defeat shall be the portion of any party.

Judge O'Rear, who is now on the run, is writhing under the charge of insincerity which has been made in every section of the State, and which has been confirmed by every word he has uttered since his nomination.

ENGLAND'S THREE PROVINCES.

The Associated Press sends from Rome the news that an important reorganization has been decided upon and a Papal bull will shortly be issued dividing England into three ecclesiastical provinces with archiepiscopal sees at Liverpool, Birmingham and Westminster. Two new dioceses will also be formed, one out of a portion of Liverpool and the other out of the actual diocese of Northampton, with its see in Cambridge. Thus the great see of Westminster will be considerably reduced, as instead of having fourteen suffragan sees, as now, it will have only four.

LIBERTIES

Always Safe When Committed to Catholic Hands.

Following an address by Gov. Dix, in which he characterized Thomas Dongan, the first and only Roman Catholic Governor of New York, as an "exemplar of loyalty and liberty," Archbishop John M. Farley declared Sunday at the unveiling of a memorial tablet to Gov. Dongan at St. Peter's church, that "where the liberties of a people are committed to a Catholic, their liberties are safer than when committed to any other individual."

"I would be derelict," the Archbishop continued, "if I were not to draw attention to this lesson from the career of the first Catholic Governor of New York—colonial. It is true, but we have never had another. Why not a Catholic Governor of New York again? If Gov. Dongan set the pace for the entire country in so many things, if his spirit informs the charter of New York today, as it does, and informs the fundamental features of the Government of most of England's colonial possessions today, why should we not entrust to a Catholic Governor the affairs of the State of New York some day?"

The ceremonies attending the unveiling were most impressive and were witnessed by a large and distinguished gathering.

RECENT DEATHS.

By the death of Henry Deutch the Church of Our Lady loses one of its oldest and most devoted members. He was for many years a respected resident of Portland, and is mourned by five sons. His funeral took place Monday morning with a solemn mass of requiem by the Rev. Father Conniff.

The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Murphy, beloved wife of John A. Murphy, 1237 Vincennes street, New Albany, took place Monday morning from Holy Trinity church, of which she was a faithful and respected member. Besides her husband four daughters survive. They are Misses Ida and Myrtle Murphy and Mrs. Frank Genung, of New Albany, and Mrs. A. R. Heitz, of Springfield, Ill.

After a lingering illness borne with Christian fortitude Mrs. Annie Finn passed peacefully to eternity last Tuesday at the residence of her brother, Edward Finn, 916 South Fourth street. Funeral services were held at the Cathedral on Sunday afternoon and were largely attended. Miss Finn was well known and highly esteemed for her amiable disposition, her many unostentatious benevolences to the poor and her devotion to her friends.

Mrs. Sarah Fahey, aged sixty-three years, widow of Thomas Fahey, died at her home, 2817 High street, Sunday morning. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Kate Buckley, Mrs. Martha Weisenberger and Mrs. Mary McCoy, and one son, John. The funeral was held from the Church of Our Lady, of which she was a pioneer member, Rev. Father Conniff officiating at the mass of requiem and preaching a touching sermon on life and death.

The funeral of Bernard Ivo Baete took place Monday morning from St. Philip Neri's, Rev. Father Ackermann officiating at the solemn mass of requiem. Graduating with honors from St. Xavier's College, the deceased was with the Louisville Packing Company till stricken with fatal typhoid fever. The young man was a protégé of Father Ackermann, and by his exemplary life and happy disposition had won for himself a wide circle of friends who sincerely mourn his untimely death.

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Hearn, widow of Morris O'Hearn, died of the infirmities of age Sunday at her home, 1833 Frankfort avenue, after an illness of several months. Mrs. O'Hearn was sixty years of age and was a native of Louisville. She was a life-long member of the St. Frances of Rome church, and had always been active in its affairs. Two sons and two daughters survive. Rev. Thomas White officiated at the funeral, which was largely attended, and paid high tribute to the life and worth of the deceased.

CHARITY CONTRACT.

The Floyd County Board of Commissioners has awarded a contract to St. Edward's Hospital in New Albany for the care of the county's charity patients for the ensuing year, the contract price being $1,500. For a number of years St. Edward's Hospital has cared for the county's charity patients, all of the charity wards frequently being filled with patients, whose care would have been a drain on the hospital's resources but for the donation. This year the law required the Commissioners to advertise for bids for this work, and as no other bid was received the hospital for $1,500 was accordingly awarded.

JUBILEE.

Baltimore Is Now the Center of Catholic Activity and Interest.

Cardinal Gibbons Celebrating Silver Anniversary of His Elevation.

Began Saturday With Presentation of Handsome Silver Service.

WILL CONTINUE NEXT WEEK

Baltimore is now the center of Catholic activity and interest for the people of this country because of the religious celebration of the golden jubilee of the priesthood and the silver anniversary of the Cardinalate of Cardinal Gibbons, which began last Saturday and will continue next week, when the first Congress of the Holy Name Society in the United States will be convened. The event that started this great jubilee celebration was a unique one. O'REAR'S THREAT.

Judge O'Rear said that if it was necessary he would keep the Legislature in session two years, unless they passed the laws he wants passed. He probably forgets that the General Assembly can adjourn when it pleases and that the calling of that body to a special session and an immediate adjournment several times would cost the State a world of money and maybe result in nothing. The Judge should remember that old saying: "You can lead a horse to water but you can not make him drink."

CENTURY OF PEACE.

Senator Root has made the suggestion that when a hundred years of peace between the United States and Great Britain have elapsed the event be signalized by five minutes of silence over all the lands which fly the lion or the Stars and Stripes. During this period not a wheel will turn or a stroke of business be done. Through all the vast empire of the English speaking race men will pause in their affairs to ponder the great thought of peace.
The Chicago Tribune favors the suggestion and says those who remember how impressive was the pause decreed at the funeral of President McKinley will realize the force of such a plan. But the exact time will have to be settled by arbitrary rule. Unhappily the war of 1812 stopped constructively before it did actually. Fifteen days after the treaty of peace was signed Pakenham made the fatal mistake of attacking the redoubtable Andy Jackson at New Orleans. There were no cables, telegraphs or "wireless" in those days. So we shall have to determine whether the century closes December 24, when the treaty was signed; January 8, when the last battle was fought; February 16, when the treaty was ratified by the United States Senate; February 17, when it was approved by the President, or February 18, when proclamation of peace was made and the treaties were exchanged.
By all means make it January 8,
and honor Jackson and his men, whose bravery and victory brought the peace that England would destroy.

LAWYERS AND JUDGES.

Gov. Foss, of Massachusetts, who is the Democratic nominee for re-election, has the right idea concerning the judiciary. Speaking of the appointments made by him, he voiced the following sentiment, which would bring to the bench only Judges who will command the confidence of all classes:

"Voters have nothing to do with the appointment of Judges; that is the most responsible duty that I, as Governor of Massachusetts, have had to perform. My only thought was to give Massachusetts a great Chief Justice. All the Judges and lawyers were agreed that Judge Rugg was the best man for that high position, but before I appointed him I read through a number of his decisions and satisfied myself not only as to his great ability as a lawyer—he is a fearless and impartial Judge—but that he had in him the milk of human kindness which so many jurists lack. I want the Judges I appoint—and out of twenty-seven it has fallen to my lot to appoint nine, besides the Chief Justice and a Judge of the Superior Court—to be men who understand the conditions under which the great majority of workers live; men who will do more than merely interpret the law, men who will do exact and even justice between the rich and the poor, the strong and the weak. There are too many Judges in this country, some of them very able men, who have been all their lives in the employ of great corporations, and who owe their elevation to the bench to the political influence of their clients."

This is Democratic doctrine which all Governors might well observe, and thereby restore that respect for our courts sadly lacking almost everywhere.

HEATING PROJECT.

The steam heating project of the Kentucky Electric Company, explained in another column, is one that commends itself and will doubtless meet with the approval of the general public. That the fire insurance rates of the entire downtown business district will be lowered by the project for the furnishing of steam heat was the statement made by W. W. Boomer, Secretary of the Fire Underwriters' Association. He said that naturally, when heat is furnished from the outside of a building instead of the inside there is less danger of a conflagration.
Mayor Head also reiterated his expressions in favor of the franchise being granted. Steam heating would almost entirely abolish the smoke nuisance in the business district and be beneficial in many other ways. In our opinion the sooner the franchise is granted the better it will be for Louisville.

The taxpayers of Louisville never had a better ticket to vote for than that named by the Democratic convention. The knowledge that for the next two years the business interests of the city will be faithfully and honestly conserved should result in a tremendous majority for McCreary, McDermott, Quarles and every man on the ticket ballot, which this year will be voted straight.

The election takes place three weeks from the coming Tuesday. Do a little work each day for Mc-Creary, McDermott and the entire Democratic ticket. This will not only arouse your own enthusiasm, but that of your neighbors and the friends of good government.

Cardinal Gibbons' jubilee celebration this week was a great demonstration of Catholic citizenship to the people of Baltimore and the country.

Want To Rid Business District
of Smoke Nuisance.

chants Join In Request.

VERY POPULAR FRANCHISE

The popularity of the proposal of the Kentucky Electric Company to supply steam heat in the central district of the city, thus eliminating the use of many private plants and getting rid of the smoke nuisance to a large extent, was amply demonstrated, as far as those immediately affected are concerned, by the signatures to a petition which has been presented to the Mayor and the General Council.

The petition, which asks that the ordinance introduced at the instance of the company in the lower board of the General Council Thursday evening be passed and the franchise providing for the manufacture and sale of steam heat be created, carries 243 signatures, representing the almost unanimous opinion of property owners or tenants along the lines laid out for initial service in favor of the project.

LARGE TAXPAYERS WANT IT.
Analysis of the list shows that many of the largest taxpayers in the city want central station heating service, and that the innovation has the support of some of the most important mercantile establishments in the city.

This is explained largely on the ground that merchants, especially those carrying large stocks of delicate fabrics, have been compelled for years to charge off annually a large sum for depreciation caused by smoke and coal dust, which fills the atmosphere as the result of the operation of scores of private heating plants in the downtown district. Sixteen dry goods stores and ladies' apparel establishments have evidenced their favor of the measure.

ALL CLASSES FAVOR FRAN-CHISE.

The trouble and expense of maintaining a large plant and supplying service to many tenants is by no means inconsiderable. Thus the plan to supply central-station heat, which, it is asserted, is not only more satisfactory to the owner of the building, but to the "ultimate consumer," has appealed to owners of office buildings, eleven of whom have signed the petition. Seven restaurants and nine hotels are included in the list, while ten men's furnishing goods stores and ten tailors have said that they want the franchise made effective. Ten printers are shown on the list, as well as eighteen real estate men.
Nine shoe dealers and thirty-seven other retail establishments are represented by signatures to the petition.

The opinion of bankers on subjects of general interest is conceded to be good, and for that reason the fact that six heads of banking houses have signed the appeal to the city officials is of interest. Practically all of the large mercantile houses along the lines are on the list, sixtyone wholesalers being included.
There are forty-four names which could be listed under the head of miscellaneous, indicating that the support of the measure on the part of business men is by no means confined to a few interests.

EVEN COAL DEALERS SIGN.

It might be thought that the measure would be strongly opposed by coal dealers who are now supplying fuel to the establishments which would be served by the proposed plan. This opinion is contradicted, however, by the fact that coal men have placed their signatures on the petition, not to mention others who have verbally stated that they favor the measure.

HOW PETITION READS.

The petition is as follows:
"The Mayor and General Council of Louisville:
"We most respectfully petition you to create by ordinance a franchise to be sold at public auction, permitting the distribution and sale of steam heat through the congested business district from a central plant.
"The multiplicity of chimneys in this territory, belching dense smoke, soot and coal dust, is directly responsible for big property loss annually, great injury to all kinds of wearing apparel and house-furnishings, and indirectly the cause of many diseases of the nose and throat.
"The ordinance we suggest would permit the discontinuance of the use of these chimneys and assist materially in the movement looking to a 'City Beautiful.'" The petition has 243 names of business men and firms signed to it.

MEMORY WILL LIVE.

Johnnie Martin's Sudden Death Leaves Many Mourners.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F.
Martin, of 432 East Gray street, were deeply grieved to hear of the death of their son, John Gray Martin, which took place Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock after an illness of several days, although not having been healthy or robust for the past year. "Johnnie," as he was known to all, made friends both among the young and old. His amiable ways and ever present smile endeared him to those he came in contact with,
and although his span of life was but short and fleeting, the memory of his good qualities and loving ways will live with them forever. He was seventeen years of age and a graduate of St. John's school, being also an altar boy at that church. Besides his father and mother he is survived by six brothers and one sister, Frank, Theodore, Albert, Warfield, Benjamin, Bertille and Mayme. The funeral takes place from St. John's church this morning at 9 o'clock with interment in St.
Louis cemetery.

a plentiful supply of corn cob pipes, long green tobacco and stogies. The large hall was filled when President

but the condition of Conrad Schaefer

President Robertson announced that the council had arranged to have Judge S. B. Boldrick address the members at the meeting next Mon-stated that progress was being made

WIDESPREAD

Was Celebration of Discovery Day Anniversary.

The celebration of Landing day and the one hundred and nineteenth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus was observed with patriotic and religious spirit in nearly all the cities and States of the Union last Thursday. Half a million Chicago people witnessed an exact reproduction of those historic incidents surrounding the voyage, landing and discovery of America by Columbus. The great parade ending at Jackson Park.

In Boston there was a great parade after the religious services, and in New York City the demonstration was one of the largest and most varied viewed in recent years. Columbus day has been declared a legal holiday in twenty-six States, and in every one the Knights of Columbus had arranged for its observance.

The local celebration was held under the direction of Louisville Council, which was concluded with a largely attended banquet at the club house on Fourth street. Judge Matt O'Doherty presided as toastmaster and responses were made by Thomas Walsh, Carey Taylor and Joseph Conkling that elicited much applause and were highly appreciated. There was also a general observance of the day in New Albany and Jeffersonville.

SPREADING.

Catholic Knights and Ladies Organizing New Fields.

St. Cecilia's Branch No. 5, of the C. K. and L. of A., held an open session Monday evening in the school hall, at which District Deputy John J. Score and several members of the Central Committee were present. Rev. Father A. J. Brady, Spiritual Director, delivered a short talk on the benefits of the society, followed by J. J. Score, Andrew Kast, Daniel Cuniff, Mrs. D. J. Dougherty, Miss Katie Reardon, Miss Ella Flaherty and others.

Rev. Father Jansen, of St. Bridget's church, has called a meeting of his parishioners for tomorrow afternoon, when they will be addressed by Mr. Score with the hope of organizing a branch in that parish.

District Deputy Score, Dr. Charles Edelen and Emery Schlafer, Secretary of the Central Committee, have enlisted the services of Rev. Father J. J. Fitzgerald, of Highland Park, in organizing a branch for that parish, and will call a meeting for Sunday, October 22. All of the branches are vying with one another in booming the big meeting at Bertrand Hall next Friday night, when Supreme President Frank P. Leonard will be present.

EUCHRE AT ST. ANN'S.

The ladies of St. Ann's church will entertain with a euchre, social and cake sale on Thursday afternoon and evening, October 26, at the school hall, Seventh street and Davies avenue. The social will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock and the euchre will be held at 3 and 8 o'clock. Many handsome euchre prizes have been secured.

FORTY HOURS.

The Forty Hours' Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will begin with the solemn high mass tomorrow morning at St. Boniface church, Fehr avenue, near Jackson street, and will close Tuesday evening. There will be a procession at both services, and eloquent Franciscans will preach the sermons.

BENEFIT FOR MEMBER.

The St. John Benevolent Society will have benefit performances at the Palace Theater, Shelby and Rupp street, on October 16 and 17, the proceeds to be donated to an unfortunate but worthy member of that organization. Several local artists have volunteered their services and a good programme will be presented.

NOTRE DAME.

The registration books in the office of the Secretary of the University of Notre Dame, the great Indiana educational institution, show an enrollment that outstrips that of last year. Nearly all the rooms in Sorin, Corby and Walsh Halls are filled and there are few vacant desks in the study halls at St. Joseph, Carroll, Brownson and St. Edward's Halls. New students are entering every day, and many of the students of last year who have been detained at home by illness or business have written to engage accommodations for the coming year. By today the university authorities expect the largest attendance in the history of Notre Dame.

OLDEST AMERICAN HOUSE.

The oldest house in America is in St. Augustine, Fla. In 1564 it was built by the monks of the order of St. Francis, and the whole of the solid structure is composed of coquina, a combination of sea shells and mortar, which is almost totally indestructible. When Francis Drake sacked and burned the town, this was the only house left in the trail of destruction.

PLEADS FOR FIREMEN.

The Rev. Joseph A. M. Distler, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Kansas City, strongly appealed for shorter hours and more home life for the firemen of Kansas City, in a recent sermon. He said that firemen have complained that their hours are such that they are not home long enough for their own children to become acquainted with them. He explained that the fireman is on duty twenty-four hours of the day, and has not time to devote to home or religious

ROSARY.

Purifying and Chastening and Comforting in Distress.

This month, as all Catholics know, is dedicated to Our Blessed Lady and more especially to her chief devotion—the Rosary. Prayer is a great and splendid thing; because it lifts us to our God and Father, it is ennobling; because it makes us know our dependence, it is purifying and chastening; it is comforting in distress, it is an oasis of green trees and cooling waters in the desert of life. But the Rosary, of all our prayers, has its own peculiar charm. Besides the high origin of its varied prayers—one is from the lips of God and one from an angel's, and one comes from the dawn of Christian times, and another is the inspiration of the Holy Spirit—it is holy with human memories; it is long ago perhaps and far away, but the memory will never die save when we die too, of the happy days when we played with our mother's beads or said the "Hail Marys" with her. Thank God, exclaims the Denver Register, Catholics love the Rosary. In these October days when the glory of the summer is over and falling leaves and dead flowers remind us of the end of all things, it is with us and the hope also, that when the end comes it will be clasped around our helpless hands.

MADNESS

Such Is Termed the Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

Initiative, referendum and recall were termed the weapons of mobocracy by Archbishop Ireland in an address at the banquet of the Army of the Tennessee at Council Bluffs, Iowa, Wednesday evening. After relating this story of the making of the democratic Government by the newly-born States after the Revolutionary War, Archbishop Ireland said:

"And now the clamor is heard that the organizations of American democracy such as the republic has known for a century and a quarter must be altered, torn asunder, under the pretense that with it the people do not govern with sufficient directness. Let us hope that this clamor is but a passing ebullition of feeling, soon to sink back into the tranquil seriousness of thought usually underlying the movements of the masses of the people, to be there buried in the silence of oblivion. Democracy, yes; mobocracy, never. And toward mobocracy we are now bidden to wend our way. The shibboleths of the clamor, you know—the initiative, referendum, the recall—put into general practice, as the evangelists of the new social gospel faith would have them, are nothing more nor less than the madness of democracy."

NEXT MEETING.

Of Division Four Will Be Devoted to Initiatory
Work.

Division 4, A. O. H., met Monday evening and made final preparations for their initiation, which will be held on the date of their next regular meeting, October 23, when a class of about fifteen is expected to receive the degrees. President John H. Hennessy appointed a special entertainment committee, composed of Dave Reilly, Thomas J. Langan and M. J. McDermott, to arrange for the refreshments and entertainment features for that night. Patrick Connelly's application for membership was received, and the Visiting Committee reported that George Holland was the only member now on the sick list. Rev. Father E. A. Baxter, who has just been assigned to the Dominican Convent, was present at the meeting and promised to attend the initiation and make a few remarks on the principles of the order.

MUST RULE.

Redmond Insists on Local Self-Government For Ireland.

John Redmond, speaking last Saturday at Manchester, said that the main principle at stake is purely that the Irish in local affairs shall have the largest measure of self-government consistent with the integrity of the empire and the supremacy of the imperial Parliament. "We do not ask for the repeal of the union," said he. "We accept your supremacy—not merely accept it but invite you to make it as effective as you like."

CATHOLIC FORESTERS.

St. Louis Bertrand Court of the Catholic Order of Foresters has every arrangement perfected for its big euchre next Wednesday night at Bertrand Hall, Sixth and Oak. Harry Fisher, Dr. C. A. Edelen and E. E. Lanning have been working hard for the affair and have secured the best prizes of the season.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

Sashes and military effects will be strong this fall.

White lace veils continue to be extremely popular.

Both cream white and dead white are fashionable for evening hats.

The bows at the throat multiply. Shetland veils are fashionable.

For coat sleeves the slit-into-the-armorholes style is generally accepted.

Soutache braiding as well as wide braids will be seen on gowns and suits.

A large, soft woolen cord, white and fluffy, is much used in trimming simple hats.

Bows trim everything, from cap on pretty heads to the slippers on slender toes.

Velvet bids fair to become exceedingly popular, both for street and evening wear.

Tailored suits and costumes are showing fringe on the tunics and under petticoats.

Never was there such a rage for bordered silks—and never were bordered silks more glorious.

Purple is to have a reign among the favorites, and clear emerald green will also be within the royal circle.

Velvet, it is conceded, will be more in evidence than any other fabric used for entire hats and trimmings.

Flit lace is much used for panels, yokes and undersleeves. Some times the figures are embroidered in colors to carry out a tone idea of the costume.

HOME MADE CORN BEEF.

Make a brine of three quarts of water, one cup of coarse salt, one-half cup brown sugar and saltpeper size of a hazelnut. Boil all together and let cool. Select the piece of meat you prefer, put it into a crock and turn the brine over. Let stand about six days with a weight on to keep under the brine, when it is ready for use. Cover with cold water and cook over a slow fire.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Our Ladies' Auxiliary is making steady progress and is now in better condition than ever before in its history.

There has been a large sale of tickets for the dance of the Ladies' Auxiliary, which will be a most enjoyable affair.

Buffalo Hibernians hope to have National President Regan and Patrick J. Hattigan with them for their big initiation next week.

At the County Board meeting to be held next Friday night in St. Patrick's at Buffalo it is expected to initiate a class of 200 members.

Don't fail to witness the initiation of Division 3 at Falls City Hall next Thursday night. A royal reception and something besides await all visitors.

Members of Division 1 are expected to be out in full force at the meeting Tuesday night to witness the initiation and conferring of degrees by Division 3.

Division 4 will confer the degrees at the next meeting. The team of this division gives a splendid exemplification, and a large gathering will be present to witness the work.

State President Brown will be the principal speaker at an open meeting of Division 2 of Syracuse on October 25. John Ryan, who organized the division twenty-five years ago, will be the presiding officer.

Prof. Rohan, of Marquette University, Milwaukee, and Chairman of the History Committee, is touring the West in the interest of Irish history in parochial schools, and it is said is meeting with much success.

Capt. Dolan is rehearsing his degree team and expects to have it ready for work by the first of the year. Each member of the team will be letter perfect in his part, thus adding to the impressiveness of the work.

A pleasant event in St. Paul was the reception tendered by the Ladies' Auxiliary County Board to the Auxiliary County Board of Minneapolis. An address by Rev. T. J. Gleason and a splendid musical and literary programme was followed by a banquet.

Next Tuesday night Division 3 will have the first fall initiation and reception for members of the order at Falls City Hall, and the officers and members have arranged an excellent programme. They propose to make this one of the big events of the season, and therefore invite all Hibernians to be present and partake of their hospitality.

Division 3 meets Wednesday night in Odd Fellow Temple, Sixth and Walnut, and President Ford requests that every member be present. There will be business to transact in which every member has an interest. Since moving to the more central part of the city there has been a gratifying increase in the attendance, which is encouraging to the officers, who are working to double the membership this year.

WATHEN—CORCORAN.

Miss Miriam Wathen and Andrew J. Corcoran were quietly married Tuesday morning at St. Brigid's church, on Von Borries avenue, Rev. Father Bohlen performing the ceremony. The only attendants were Mrs. R. H. Somes, sister of the bride, and William G. Hume. The bride wore a blue tailored gown, with hat to match, and carried bride roses. Mrs. Somes wore a gray suit, with gray hat. The bride party and members of the two families were entertained at breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. James Wathen at their home on Cherokee road after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran left later for Washington and Philadelphia, and upon their return will be with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Wathen, until they go to housekeeping.

"ROCK OF AGES."

Rowland and Clifford's new play, "Rock of Ages," was written by Edward E. Rose as a companion play for "The Rosary," remembered as the season's big success last year. It is proclaimed as a play with a purpose, showing the corrupt connection between politicians and the vice of the white slave traffic. The theme has to do with conditions which actually happen in the large cities. Owing to the daring manner in which the author went about to cultivate his ideas, much stress has to be laid on several places in the play in order that the play might not be barred from presentation. Miss Jessie Arnold, as Bethel Martin, a minister, is the chief character in the play, which comes to the Walnut-street Theater next week.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE.

Philip Kelly, of Frankfort avenue, for over forty years a trusted employee of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, was last week granted a deserved vacation, which will be spent on a combined business and pleasure trip to his old friends in Texas and Oklahoma. Mr. Kelly left last Friday for Little Rock, Ark., where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. Harry Esterle. From there he will go to Texas, visiting his brother, Charles Kelly, at Murvaul, and Rev. Father Diamond, rector of the Cathedral at Dallas. Mr. Kelly will conclude his trip in Oklahoma, where he has business interests, returning to Louisville the last of this month.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Consulted the Best Doctors, 9 Brooklyn, N. Y., 264 Hamburg Ave., Sept. 7, 1916.

For seven years I had nearly every day an attack of Epilepsy and Hysteria. I consulted the best doctors in the City of New York, who tried everything, but without result. At last I tried Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and before finishing the first bottle I was feeling well, because the fit disappeared. I am very thankful and have confidence in the Tonic.

Mrs. Martin Hotchkiss, Idaho, wasn't able to sleep more than one hour in a night for three years. She was troubled with Fever, tearing pains in the sides. He used Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and since then his sleep increased to 5 and 6 hours. Besides he is very much pleased with the effect of the remedy.

FREE A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a Sample bottle to any address. Poor people also get the medicine free. Prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and now by the KOENIG MED. CO., Chicago, Ill., 109 Lake Street.

become common property," said Emil Liebing Saturday afternoon at a weekly luncheon of the Irish Fellowship Club at the Hotel La Salle in Chicago. "In a musical way the Irish have their own place. The national airs of Ireland are liked and loved wherever they are heard. Handel wrote his 'Messiah' in Dublin, while John Field, the famous pianist, was an Irishman."

HOPKINS' THEATER.

Hopkins' Theater announces an unusually strong bill for next week, each act having been selected with the idea of covering a wide range. Drama, burlesque and musical numbers blend happily on the programme, and go to make a vaudeville show that is sure to please the most capricious critic.

SHUBERT MASONIC.

Willie Collier is presenting a new comedy this season. He calls it "Take My Advice," and it is said to be the best vehicle he has ever had. "Take My Advice" is the joint work of Mr. Collier and James Montgomery, the well known playwright. It will be seen at the Shubert Masonic Theater on October 19, 20 and 21.

Very Rev. F. Maguire presided over a meeting in the Town Hall, Granard, when Patrick O'Reilly was presented with an address and testimonial on the occasion of his retirement after a service of over fifty years as National school teacher in Granard.

A. Slattery, a Nenagh flour merchant and baker, whose case has been for some time past occupying the attention of the local Town Tenants' Association, was evicted from his house, and a crowd of sympathizers hooted the bailiffs, who had to be protected by the police.

A shocking accident occurred in Athlone, resulting in terrible injuries to a laborer named Patrick Dalton. He was carting boxes of eggs to the Southern station, sitting on the uppermost box. A passing motor car frightened the horse, and Dalton was thrown off, one of the wheels passing over his right arm and portion of his chest. He is not expected to recover.

VEENEMAN—MATTINGLY.

St. Mary Magdalen's church was thronged Thursday morning to witness the marriage of William H. Veeneman and Miss Edna A. Mattingly, the Rev. Father Gausophol celebrating the nuptial mass and pronouncing the words that united the happy couple. The matron of honor, Mrs. George Rankin, was attired in a pale yellow embroidered marquisette over yellow messaline satin, with picture hat trimmed in chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Kathryn Mosher, wore a gown of French batiste, trimmed in Valenciennes and Cluny lace, and a large hat. The color decorations at the church and at the wedding breakfast that followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Bohan, were yellow and white.

The bride is a niece of Rev. Father Jerome Mattingly, well known in the missionary world. The couple are now spending their honeymoon in Chicago, and upon their return will go to housekeeping at 121 Caldwell street.

AVENUE THEATER.

Somewhat out of the ordinary is "The Little Girl That He Forgot," which will be the attraction at the Avenue Theater next week. The story hinges largely on the question of one law for men and another for women. In this play it is handled in an entirely different manner from which it has ever been seen before, and it points a powerful moral. "The Little Girl That He Forgot" is presented by a very capable company, with Agnes Bilal in the role of June Holly, about whom the story of the play is centered. The scenic equipment is all that could be desired, and the rugged Missouri swamp land region, in which the play is laid, is depicted in its true colors.

PREACHER TO BE PRIEST.

J. A. M. Richey, former pastor of the Good Shepherd Episcopal church at Quincy, Ill., and who last March was received into the Catholic church by Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, has entered Kenrick Seminary to study for the priesthood.
